CHARLIE MANUEL • ALL-TIME WINNINGEST PHILLIES MANAGER

2012 MEDIA GUIDE

IN MEMORIAM

The 2012 Phillies Media Guide is dedicated to the memories of two members of the Phillies family: Jerry Clothier and Andy Musser.

Jerry started with the Phillies in 1982 and served as both the club's chief financial officer and senior vice president of business and finance, but it will be his roles as friend and mentor that many around Citizens Bank Park will remember. A devoted husband, father and grandfather, Jerry was rarely seen without a smile on his face and truly lived life to the fullest.

Andy was, along with the late Harry Kalas, the late Richie Ashburn and Chris Wheeler, the sound of summer for many Phillies fans for over 25 years. He might be remembered best for his call of Hall of Famer Mike Schmidt's 11th-inning home run in Montreal that helped clinch the NL East title in 1980, but his gentlemanly demeanor is what truly defined him most.

2011 NL EAST CHAMPIONS

The 2012 Philadelphia Phillies Media Guide was published in March 2012. Newspapers, magazines, radio and television stations needing additional information should contact the Phillies Communications Department at: Citizens Bank Park, One Citizens Bank Way, Philadelphia, PA 19148; (215) 463-6000.

DAVID MONTGOMERY

General Partner, President and Chief Executive Officer

David Montgomery's first association with the Phillies was as a young fan growing up in Philadelphia, attending hundreds of games at Connie Mack Stadium. He realized every baseball fan's dream when he started working for the club in 1971 just in time for the opening of the new Veterans Stadium.

After graduating with an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, Montgomery began his career in the Phillies Sales Office selling season and group tickets. He advanced to positions as marketing director and then director of sales before becoming executive vice president after the 1981 season.

He was elevated to chief operating officer in 1992. In 1994, Montgomery was designated as co-general partner and acquired an ownership interest in the team. On June 20, 1997 he succeeded Bill Giles as general partner, president and chief executive officer.

Montgomery's association with the Phillies from Connie Mack to Veterans Stadium has moved to Citizens Bank Park, which opened in April of 2004. Under his leadership, the Phillies constructed new state-of-the-art facilities in both Philadelphia and Clearwater, Fla., with the 2004 opening of Bright House Field, the home of Phillies Spring Training and the Clearwater Threshers.

During his 41 years in the game, Montgomery has been active in a wide range of areas for Major League Baseball. He is presently vice chair of the Board of Directors of Major League Baseball Enterprises (formerly MLB Properties) and is a member of MLB's Executive Council. In addition, he serves on the board of MLB Network. Montgomery is also a member of MLB's Schedule Committee and Labor Policy Committee as well as the Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters.

Locally, Montgomery remains an active alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania where he served as a trustee. He currently serves on the university's Board of Overseers of the Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. He is a past member and former chair of the policy board of WXPN Radio – 88.5FM, the university's member-supported radio station. In October 2009 Montgomery received the Penn Alumni Award of Merit in recognition of his dedication and service to the university.

In addition to his Penn activities, Montgomery is the current chairman of the Philadelphia Sports Congress and also serves on the board of Need in Deed, a nonprofit service-learning organization working with children in Philadelphia public schools. He is a past board chairman of both the Schuylkill Center for Environmental Education and the Woodlynde School, a private K-12 school in Strafford, PA.

PAL presented Montgomery and the Phillies with the Police Athletic League Award in May 2008 in appreciation of his and the ballclub's longtime support of PAL and commitment to Philadelphia youth. In June 2009 Montgomery and the Phillies received the Vision for Philadelphia Award from Philadelphia Hospitality. He continues to serve, along with H.F. "Gerry" Lenfest, as an honorary co-chair for the Children's Scholarship Fund Philadelphia's Campaign for 10,000 Children. In May 2012 Montgomery will represent the ballclub when the Phillies are honored as community champions by the Alzheimer's Association Delaware Valley Chapter. Montgomery also serves as a co-chair of the annual "Get in the Game" fundraiser for Philadelphia Futures, a program that helps inner-city students achieve their dream of a college education.

Under Montgomery's leadership, the Phillies continue to broaden their community outreach, supporting hundreds of charities and nonprofit groups through contributions and other assistance provided by Phillies Charities, Inc., the club's charitable arm. Two keystones of the Phillies' charitable endeavors are the Phillies Phestival, held each season in support of the ALS Association – Greater Philadelphia Chapter, and the annual Phillies Holiday Dinner, prepared and served by front office staff, at the Bethesda Project's "Our Brother's Place," a homeless facility in North Philadelphia.

The ballclub is also very active on the education front with the sponsorship of "Be A Phanatic About Reading" and Phillies Phundamentals, youth programs aimed at combining fun and learning with baseball. In addition, Philadelphia's boys and girls are learning about the game and playing baseball through the Phillies-sponsored RBI and Rookie League programs.

Montgomery grew up in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia. He is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School (1964), where he received the Alumni Award of Merit in 2005, and the University of Pennsylvania (1968), where he majored in history. He received his MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in the fall of 1970.

David and his wife Lyn make their home in the Wyndmoor section of Philadelphia. They have three children, Harry, Sam and Susa, and one granddaughter, Elizabeth.

OWNERSHIP

The Phillies is a limited partnership formed in 1981. None of the longtime partners owns as much as 50% of the partnership. David Montgomery is the general partner, with complete management authority.

EXECUTIVES

BILL GILES
Chairman

Baseball has been Bill Giles' life. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was president and general manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and president of the National League (1951-69). Giles spent much of his childhood with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati and got his first job in baseball as a teenager doing all kinds of odds and ends in the Reds' Public Relations Department.

From that inauspicious beginning, Giles went on to establish his own impressive baseball career. He has held various positions with two National League teams, Houston and Philadelphia, and served on numerous committees in baseball while being one of Philadelphia's most visible community activists. Currently chairman of the Phillies, Giles was appointed honorary National League president early in the 2001 season, the first father-son combination at that level in baseball history. His appointment by Commissioner Bud Selig is a testimony to his stature in the game. In January 2010, he was given the Bud Selig Executive Leadership Award for lifetime achievement in baseball from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. Giles is also a member of the Veterans Committee of baseball's Hall of Fame.

Following graduation from Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U.S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as traveling secretary, publicity director, director of public relations and promotions, and vice president. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as vice president, business operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to executive vice president.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group that purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained president of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to chairman. In the summer of 2001, Giles was nominated to serve as honorary president of the National League, a role in which he represents the NL at the All-Star Game and postseason play.

Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: chairman emeritus of the board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past president of the Boy Scouts of America and the Corporate Alliance for Drug Education; on the boards of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Police Athletic League and Salvation Army; and a member of the Union League, Rotary Club and the visitors boards of the Temple University Medical School and Temple University Journalism School.

He has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards: Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc.; the American Heart Association's Man of the Year; the Team Leadership Award from the Tug McGraw Foundation (2006); Crescent Award from Rosemont College (2010) and Man of the Year by Chamounix (2010).

Born in Rochester, N.Y., Giles resides in Villanova, Pa., with his wife Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Michael and his wife Nanette have twins, daughter Lowell (Lowie) and son William (Will). Joe and his wife Paula have four children, Caroline, Dana, Molly and Max. Chris and his wife Amy have two children, Eliza and Warren.

Giles recently wrote a book about his baseball career currently available in most bookstores and online entitled Pouring Six Beers at a Time: And Other Stories from a Lifetime in Baseball.

DAVID BUCK
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Advertising Sales

David Buck, a lifelong Phillies fan with over 20 years of experience with the club, was promoted to senior vice president, marketing and advertising sales, in February of 2007. In this role, David oversees the Phillies marketing department, encompassing advertising sales, events, fan development, broadcasting, video services, advertising, merchandising and promotions.

Prior to his promotion, David was vice president of advertising sales for eight seasons. He oversaw the transition from Veterans Stadium to Citizens Bank Park from a sponsorship perspective, and helped conceive and implement the strategy of bringing all advertising elements (television, radio, signage, print and promotions) under the control of the Phillies. Additionally, David led the club's team that secured the 25-year naming rights partnership with Citizens Bank.

Born in Abington, Pa., David attended Springfield High School and graduated from Lafayette College in 1986 with a BA in history. He stays connected to Lafayette by hosting students each offseason in an externship program. He also serves on the board of directors of the Please Touch Museum, a children's museum located in Philadelphia.

David and his wife Nancy live in Broad Axe, Pa., with their three children, Andrew, Katie and Jake.

EXECUTIVES

MICHAEL STILES
Senior Vice President, Administration and Operations

Michael Stiles was hired by the Phillies as vice president for administration and operations in April 2001. He became a senior vice president on February 1, 2007.

As an attorney since 1971, Michael Stiles held significant positions in public service for almost 30 years, most recently serving from 1993 until 2001 as the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. He also spent 10 years as an elected trial judge in the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County and 12 years as a trial attorney and supervisor in the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, the last two of which he served as first assistant district attorney.

Born in Philadelphia, Michael obtained his undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Pennsylvania and his law degree, with honors, from Villanova University School of Law. He is the past chairperson of the Woodlynde School Board of Directors, and a former member of the board of directors of United Way for Southeastern Pennsylvania and the board of trustees of Thomas Jefferson University. He presently serves as a member of the executive board for the Committee of Seventy.

Michael and his wife Leslie live in the East Falls section of Philadelphia. They have two adult children, Jacqueline and Eric; three grandchildren, Jack, Whitney and Cole; and a golden retriever, Mulligan.

BONNIE CLARK
Vice President, Communications

Bonnie Clark joined the Phillies in April 2008 as vice president, communications. In her role, she oversees baseball communications, player relations, community outreach, publicity, crisis and issues management, business communications, creative services and publications. Since joining the club, Bonnie has focused on extending the Phillies brand beyond traditional media relations boundaries of sports press and securing exposure for the franchise on the Food Network, Bravo, Discovery and other mainstream media outlets.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Bonnie worked for multi-media retailer QVC for close to nine years where she served as director of corporate affairs and vice president of public relations. In her role there, she was responsible for creating public relations and media relations strategies that increased awareness and enhanced the brand. She also spearheaded all crisis and issues management for the company.

Before QVC, Bonnie worked with Tierney Communications in Philadelphia where she served as associate vice president for the agency's consumer public relations division and was responsible for developing and implementing communications strategies for consumer clients. She also held various positions of increasing responsibility with Golin/Harris Communications in Philadelphia and at New York agencies M. Silver Associates and Ogilvy & Mather Public Relations, where she developed and implemented public relations campaigns for industry leaders and internationally respected consumer brands.

Bonnie graduated from Delaware Valley High School in Milford, Pa., and received her bachelor's degree in journalism from West Virginia University in 1986. She is a council member of Third Century Initiative (3CI), a Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce organization dedicated to strengthening the economic vitality of Philadelphia's business community. Bonnie also serves as a board member for the Kennedy Health System Foundation and is a member of the Baseball Assistance Team (B.A.T.) Women's Subcommittee.

Bonnie lives in Cherry Hill, N.J., with her three children, Kyle, Troy and Jenna.

RICHARD DEATS
Vice President, Phillies Enterprises

Richard Deats assumed the title of vice president, Phillies Enterprises on February 1, 2007.

He joined the Phillies in 1974 as a ticket office representative after spending five years as a teacher and coach at Germantown Academy. Richard worked in the ticket office for two years until being named director of group sales in January 1976. In 1982 he assumed responsibility for season tickets and was made sales director and in 1987 he added ticket operations to his responsibilities and title. He was named vice president of ticket sales and operations in January of 1992 and oversaw the sale, production and delivery of all Phillies tickets until the end of the 2006 season, which included 1993, the first year in Phillies history with attendance of over 3 million, and 2004, which was the opening of Citizens Bank Park.

During the construction of Citizens Bank Park, Richard worked with Ewing Cole and HOK as the design liaison for the Phillies and it was during this time that he began transitioning to his current position in which he represents the Phillies in many of their business relationships.

In 2008 he was honored for his contributions to the club with the Richie Ashburn Special Achievement Award, given to a member of the Phillies organization who has demonstrated loyalty, dedication and passion for the game. On April 2, 2009, he was inducted into the City All-Star Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Richard was born and raised in Philadelphia and attended the William Penn Charter School and the University of Pennsylvania. He and his wife Nina live in Center City Philadelphia and have two daughters, Lisa and Wendy.

EXECUTIVES

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., Kathy graduated from Little Flower Catholic High School for Girls in 1981 and earned a BA in management/marketing in 1985 from Spring Garden College. RUBEN AMARO JR.

Senior Vice President & General Manager

Ruben Amaro Jr. was named senior vice president & general manager on November 3, 2008, after 10 years as assistant GM under Pat Gillick (2006-08) and Ed Wade (1999-2005). In his three years as GM, the Phillies have three NL East division titles, one NL pennant and the best record in the National League at 292-194 (.601), trailing only the New York Yankees in all of baseball (295-191, .607).

Over the last two seasons (2010-11), Ruben constructed a team that had the best records (97-65 & 102-60, respectively) in the major leagues. Prior to 2010, the Phillies had never posted the best record over the course of a major league season.

In his first year as GM, the Phillies won the National League pennant, making it to the seventh World Series in club history, and the team's 93 wins were the most in 16 years (97 wins in 1993). Following the season, Ruben was named Executive of the Year by the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association (PSWA) and the Phillies were honored as both the Team of the Year by the PSWA and Organization of the Year by Baseball America.

Adhering to an old-school philosophy that pitching and defense wins games, in his first two years on the job, Ruben acquired via trade and free agency four 20-game winners – Pedro Martinez, Cliff Lee (twice), Roy Halladay and Roy Oswalt. Three of the four – Martinez, Lee and Halladay – combined for six Cy Young Awards.

Born and raised in Philadelphia, Ruben was a batboy for the Phillies from 1980-83 when his father, Ruben Sr., a former shortstop with the club, was first base coach. He is a 1983 graduate of the William Penn Charter School, where he played both baseball and soccer. In 1987, he earned a BS degree in human biology from Stanford University and was a member of the 1987 NCAA Baseball Championship team.

After being selected by the Angels in the 11th round of the 1987 draft, Ruben made his major league debut with the club in 1991. Following that season, he was traded to his hometown Phillies, where he spent five of his final seven big league seasons (1992-93, 96-98). His only time away was 1994-95, when he played for Cleveland. Ruben played for both the 1993 NL Champion Phillies and the 1995 AL Champion Indians. In 1996, he ranked third among NL pinch-hitters with a .387 average. Following the 1998 season, his last as an active player, Ruben moved into the Phillies front office as assistant general manager.

During his 10 years as assistant GM, Ruben was involved in 40-man roster decisions and major league free agent contract negotiations, including those players eligible for salary arbitration. He also aided in the decision-making process of major league players and staff, including trades, player movements and hirings.

The Amaro family (Ruben Jr., his father Ruben Sr. and his late grandfather Santos) were the 2001 winners of the Al Dia Latino Legends Award, given annually to a Hispanic player(s) in Phillies history. In addition to that honor, Ruben Jr. was inducted into the All-American Amateur Baseball Association Hall of Fame in July 2008. He is also a co-founder of the Richie Ashburn-Harry Kalas Foundation, which provides free baseball camps for 1,000 underprivileged children in the Philadelphia area and awards grants for area schools and colleges. In addition, he serves on the board for the Philadelphia chapter of the YMCA.

Ruben was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and currently lives in Yardley. He has two daughters, Andrea and Sophia. He and his father are the only father-son combination to ever play for the Phillies.

PAT GILLICK

Senior Advisor to the President/General Manager

Pat Gillick moved into his current position in November of 2008 after fulfilling his three-year contract as senior vice president & general manager of the Phillies and building the club into back-to-back NL Eastern Division Champions (2007-08) and 2008 World Champions. The championship was the third of his 27-year career as a major league general manager and the second in the history of the Phillies franchise.

On December 6, 2010, Pat was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame by the Expansion Era Committee. He became just the fourth individual elected whose career has been defined nearly exclusively as a team architect, joining Ed Barrow, Branch Rickey and George Weiss. Overall, he became the 32nd major league executive to be enshrined in the Hall of Fame. He was inducted on July 24, 2011, along with Roberto Almoar and Bert Blyleven. Pat was also named to the advisory board for SABR (Society for American Baseball Research) in the fall of 2011.

Prior to being named GM of the Phillies on November 2, 2005, Gillick held the same position with the Blue Jays (1978-94), Orioles (1996-98) and Mariners (2000-03). His career record as a GM stands at 2,276-1,993 (.533), including at least 91 wins in six of his final nine seasons. His resume includes two World Series championships (1992-93) and five AL East titles (1985, 1989, 1991-93) with Toronto, one AL East title (1997) and one wild card berth (1996) with Baltimore, one AL West title (2001) and one wild card berth (2000) with Seattle and one World Series championship (2008) and two NL East titles (2007-08) with Philadelphia. Pat's records with each team were 1,352-1,297 (.510) in Toronto, 265-221 (.545) in Baltimore and 393-255 (.606) in Seattle. During his four years in Seattle (2000-03), no team in Major League Baseball had a better record. With Philadelphia, his record was 266-220 (.547).

The 2012 season marks Pat's 55th in professional baseball. From 1963 through 1976, he held numerous front office positions with the Astros and Yankees, including assistant farm director, regional scouting coordinator, director of scouting and coordinator of player development and scouting.

In August of 1976, Pat was named the vice president of player personnel for the expansion Toronto Blue Jays, becoming the franchise's first general manager at age 38. His title was changed to vice president of baseball operations on November 24, 1977, and then executive vice president, baseball, on September 24, 1984.

Pat stepped down as Blue Jays GM after the 1994 season and served as a consultant to the team in 1995.

Following the 1995 season, Pat had a brief retirement before being hired as Baltimore's GM on November 27, 1995. In his first two seasons with Baltimore – 1996-97 – the Orioles advanced to the ALCS.

When his three-year contract with Baltimore expired after the 1998 season, Pat accepted a position as the chair of the 1999 Pan Am Games baseball team steering committee.

On October 25, 1999, he was hired by Seattle as executive vice president & general manager, baseball operations. Once again, as in Baltimore, Pat's teams advanced to the ALCS in his first two years (2000-01), including tying a major league record with 116 wins in 2001.

Prior to joining the Phillies, Pat had spent the previous two seasons (2004-05) with Seattle as special consultant to the executive VP/GM.

Pat was born in Chico, Calif. In 1954 – at age 16 – he graduated from Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks, Calif., where he played baseball and football. He enrolled at the University of Southern California in the fall and graduated in 1958 at the age of 20 with a bachelor's degree in business. Pat pitched at USC and was a member of the NCAA College World Series championship team in 1958.

2011 REVIEW

SEASON RECAP

The Philadelphia Phillies captured their fifth consecutive National League East division title and their 11th in club history in 2011. For the second straight year, the Phillies posted the best record in the majors and the 2011 tally of 102 wins and 60 losses was the best in franchise history. Philadelphia held sole possession of first place in the NL East for all but five days of the season. The Phillies hit .253 as a team with 153 HR and 713 runs scored (4.40/game). Phillies pitchers posted an MLB-best 3.02 ERA, which included a 2.86 ERA for the starters, another best in baseball.

FIVE IN A ROW

The Phillies extended their franchise record of consecutive playoff berths to five (2007-11). The previous mark was three straight years from 1976-78. Philadelphia's current run of five straight postseason berths is the longest active streak in MLB. Since divisional play began in 1969, the Phillies' five consecutive division titles are tied for the third-most among MLB clubs with Oakland (1971-75), trailing the Yankees (9, 1998-2006) and Braves (14, 1991-93, 1995-2001).

102

The Phillies set a single-season franchise record last year with 102 wins which eclipsed the previous record of 101 done in 1976 and 1977. 2011 marked the Phillies' third-ever 100-win season. Philadelphia became the first NL club since 2005 (STL, 100 wins) to win 100 or more games. The last NL East team to do so was the 2003 Braves (101).

CLINCHERS

With their win over the Cardinals on September 17, the Phillies clinched their fifth straight National League East Division title. They did so in game No. 150, the fewest games played to do so in club history (previous: 156 games in 1976). They clinched a postseason berth with a win on September 14 at Houston. That was game/decision No. 146, which was also a new club record for fewest games played to do so (previous: 147 decisions in 1915).

A GOOD THING GOIN'

The 2011 season extended the Phillies' run of consecutive winning seasons to nine (2003-11; 818-640 record in that span) to match the club record that was originally set from 1975-83 (791-612-2 record in that span). Both of those nine-year stretches for the Phils produced five NL East division titles, two NL pennants and one World Series title.

COLLECTING W's

The Phillies have increased their win total in each of the last five seasons and their overall record in that span – 558-414 (.574) – is the best among all National League teams. Philadelphia posted the best record in MLB in each of the last two seasons, a first in franchise history. Below is a breakdown of the Phillies' records and final position in the NL East since 2006:

YEAR	RECORD/POSITION
2006	85-77 (.525)/2nd place
2007	89-73 (.549)/1st place
2008	92-70 (.568)/1st place
2009	93-69 (.574)/1st place
2010	*97-65 (.599)/1st place
2011	*102-60 (.630)/1st place
TOTALS	558-414 (.574)

 Denotes best record in MLB*

CY YOUNG VOTING

For the first time in franchise history, the Phillies had three pitchers place in the top five in National League Cy Young voting. Roy Halladay finished in second place at 133 points, Cliff Lee came in third at 90 points and Cole Hamels in fifth at 17 points. The 2011 Cy Young vote marked just the eighth time in the history of the award (since 1956) that one club had three pitchers in the top five. The last major league club to accomplish the feat was the 2005 Houston Astros (Roger Clemens, Roy Oswalt and Andy Pettitte). Philadelphia had two pitchers place in the top five as recently as 1980 when starter Steve Carlton won the award and reliever Tug McGraw came in fifth.

HISTORICAL ERA

The Phillies posted a major league-leading 3.02 staff ERA in 2011 which was the lowest for any MLB club since the 1989 Los Angeles Dodgers (2.95). Below is a breakdown of both the Phillies' lowest staff ERA and starting pitchers' ERA in club history (since 1912 when earned runs became an official statistic):

ROTATION RANKS

The Phillies' seven starting pitchers in 2011 – Roy Halladay, Cliff Lee, Cole Hamels, Roy Oswalt, Vance Worley, Kyle Kendrick and Joe Blanton – combined to set franchise records in wins (76), strikeouts (935), fewest walks (221) and quality starts (108). Among all MLB staffs, Philadelphia's starters led in each of the categories previously mentioned, as well as ERA (2.86), complete games (18), innings (1064.2) and WHIP (1.11). They tied the Rangers for the lead in shutouts (7).

GOING THE DISTANCE

Phillies starters had seven shutouts in 2011, the most for the club since 2003 (7). Their 18 complete games were most since 1998 (21).

2011 TEAM NOTES

SAVING THE DAY

The Phillies led all major league teams in save percentage at 85.4% (47-for-55). Philadelphia recorded 47 saves in 2011 which was tied for the second-most (since 1969) in a single season (other years: 1977, 2001, 2002 & 2008; record 48 in 1987). The five pitchers who recorded at least one save – Ryan Madson (32-34), Antonio Bastardo (8-9), José Contreras (5-5), David Herndon (1-2) and Brad Lidge (1-1) – combined to convert 47 in 51 chances (92.1%).

PITCHING AND DEFENSE

Philadelphia finished 2011 with a team ERA of 3.02 and a fielding percentage of .988, both the best marks for all MLB clubs. It marked the first time ever in team history that the Phillies led the majors in both categories. The last MLB club to accomplish the feat was the 2008 Blue Jays (3.49 ERA & .986 FPCT) and the last NL club was the 1998 Braves (3.25 ERA & .985 FPCT).

RUN DIFFERENTIAL

Phillies pitchers allowed 529 runs (fewest for the club since 1994 - 497), the fewest among MLB clubs and 49 fewer than the Giants who finished second at 578. The Phillies offense scored 713 runs for a NL-leading differential of 184. Only the Yankees had a higher differential at 210 (867 runs for and 657 runs against).

WAIT FOR IT

Of the 713 runs scored by the Phillies in 2011, 309 came with two outs. Their percentage of two-out runs scored (43.3%) was the highest among all MLB clubs. Additionally, the Phillies posted a .262 (181-692) team batting average with two outs and runners in scoring position, their highest mark since 1999 (.265, 195-736).

HOMEBOYS

Philadelphia posted a 52-29 (.642) record over its 81 games at Citizens Bank Park in 2011, marking the club's ninth-ever season with 50 or more wins at home. The Phillies' .642 winning percentage in home games was tied for the second-highest among MLB clubs with the Yankees (also 52-29) and trailed the Brewers (57-24, .704).

BEING AWAY'S OKAY

In addition to a club-record 102 wins, Philadelphia also established a franchise record for road victories with 50 (previous record: 48 wins in 1976 and 2009). The Phillies finished the year with a major league-best 50-31 (.617) record away from Citizens Bank Park. Prior to 2011, the Phillies had never led all MLB teams in road wins (shared 2009 lead with LAA at 48-33).

TURNSTILE TRAFFIC

For the first time in franchise history, the Phillies led all major league clubs in home total attendance (3,680,718) and average home attendance (45,441). Philadelphia has now set attendance records in those categories in each of the last four seasons. In addition, the Phillies sold out all 81 of their home games for the second straight year which extended their consecutive regular season sellout streak to 204 games. The sellout streak began on July 7, 2009.

FIRST-PLACE FIGHTINS

The 2011 season marked only the second time in franchise history that the Phillies had sole possession of first place on the first day of May, June, July, August and September and the All-Star break. The other was in 1993.

FAMILIAR FOES

Philadelphia ended the season with a 43-29 (.597) record against its NL East division rivals. Among all NL teams only the Brewers had a better winning percentage against their own division at .638 (51-29 record) despite playing eight more games due to the six-team format in the NL Central. The Phillies, Diamondbacks and Giants (also 43-29) all tied for the second-highest win percentage against their own division among NL teams.

ONE AND DONE

The Phillies set a club record in 2011 for most consecutive games without back-to-back losses from June 5-July 27 (45 games). In that 45-game span, the club posted a 31-14 (.689) record. Additionally, the Phils established a similar streak for road games in that time frame when they played 38 straight (27-11, .711) away from home without consecutive defeats, June 5-September 3.

INJURY BUG

The Phillies had 15 different players go on the disabled list in 2011 for a total of 20 stints. Only one player was on the DL at the end of the season, RHP José Contreras. A complete list of all the Phillies injuries in 2011 is detailed below:

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's history.

The city had several teams of different nicknames as far back as the 1860s, including a team called the Athletics in the National Association, a league that folded in 1875. Several of the stronger teams, including the Athletics, formed the National League, as it is still known today. The other charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals and Louisville Grays.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5, before an estimated crowd of 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until 1883. Following the 1882 season, the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings were disbanded. The NL wanted a team in Philadelphia so a franchise was awarded to Alfred J. Reach, a former player and Philadelphia sporting goods founder, and attorney Col. John I. Rogers.

Starting a ballclub from scratch, the new owners named the team "Phillies," because they wanted the club to be identified with the city of Philadelphia. The Phillies endure as the oldest, continuous, one-nickname, one-city franchise in all of professional sports, an extraordinary tradition.

Alfred Reach

PHILLIES FIRST GAME

The Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, at 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,891 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 131 million spectators have attended games in the city.

Since none of the players from the Worcester team were part of the sale, the first Phillies roster was made up of ex-minor league players and players from other NL teams. The team finished last, 17-81-1, and total attendance was a reported 55,992.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 12,500). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game on April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

Starting in 1901, the Phillies shared the Philadelphia baseball scene as the American League was formed. One of the eight AL teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack. Initially, the A's were more successful and popular. A little more than a half-century later, the team was moved to Kansas City, leaving the Phillies as Philadelphia's lone major league ballclub.

Pat Moran

The Phillies' first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former reserve catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games. Woodrow Wilson became the first President to throw out the first ball at a World Series game. The historic moment took place prior to Game 2, Oct. 9, 1915, in Philadelphia.

Alexander was one of three Hall of Famers on the 1915 pennant-winners. Left-handed pitcher Eppa Rixey and shortstop Dave "Beauty" Bancroft were the others.

The A's, under the stability of one owner, the Shibe family and later Mack, continued to do well, winning back-to-back World Championships in 1929-30. The Phillies, meanwhile, struggled for years under numerous owners, but had a star in outfielder Chuck Klein. The future Hall of Famer began a brilliant career with the Phillies in 1928.

Baker Bowl, once a magnificent ballpark, began to deteriorate. Following 51 years in that park, the Phillies moved to Shibe Park, the home of the A's, on July 4, 1938. In 1953, Shibe Park was re-named Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's longtime manager. Following 11 eighth-place finishes in 23 seasons, the A's left town after the 1954 season. The Phillies continued to play their home games in Connie Mack Stadium through 1970.

CARPENTER ERA BEGINS

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington, Del., bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

Although it still maintained the official Phillies title, the club was known as the Blue Jays for the 1944 and 1945 seasons. The new name was used heavily during that time, but usage began to drop off in the following years and the Blue Jays name never appeared in the newspapers after 1947.

When Carpenter took over as president, he began to pour money into building a minor league system. The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team nicknamed the Whiz Kids won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1, on the last day of the season. Unfortunately, a world title eluded the Phillies as they were swept by the New York Yankees in four games. The Whiz Kids had two players that would eventually be enshrined in Cooperstown, pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

As early as that year, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Fourteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened on April 10, 1971, with the Phillies defeating the Montreal Expos, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as club president in 1972, and General Manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they signed free agent Pete Rose.

Led by manager Dallas Green, the Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history at precisely 11:29 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21, 1980, when Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

CARPENTER FAMILY SELLS

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, executive vice president under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to their fourth Fall Classic by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 1983 NLCS. The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

The next time the Phillies found themselves in the playoffs was 1993, under manager Jim Fregosi. That club went from a last-place finish the previous year to the division title, leading the NL East for all but one day of the season.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favored Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the Fall Classic. However, a very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer, which gave the Toronto Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

CITIZENS BANK PARK OPENS

Ten years later, the Phillies family said goodbye to Veterans Stadium through a season-long series of "Field of Memories" events, which culminated with an emotional closing ceremony on September 28, 2003, featuring dozens of current and former Phils. The following season, the Phillies moved into Citizens Bank Park, a state-of-the-art, grass and dirt ballpark. The outfield concourse was christened "Ashburn Alley," named after the Phillies' beloved Hall of Fame outfielder and broadcaster.

After four second-place finishes, the Phillies won the NL East in 2007, their first division title in 14 years. With Charlie Manuel at the helm, the Phillies overcame a seven-game deficit with 17 regular-season games left to play to edge the Mets on the last day of the season. However, they were swept in the first round of the playoffs by the Colorado Rockies.

The following year the Phillies cemented their place in history by winning their second World Championship. After defeating the Milwaukee Brewers in the Division Series and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League Championship Series, Brad Lidge's strikeout of Tampa Bay's Eric Hinske on October 29, 2008, started the biggest block party in the history of Philadelphia. Two days later, the parade down Broad Street was attended by an estimated 2 million fans. After a stop at Lincoln Financial Field, it culminated with an unforgettable on-field ceremony at Citizens Bank Park, where the Phillies were a perfect 7-0 in the playoffs.

In 2009, the Phillies made their second straight World Series appearance, a first in franchise history. It was the club's fifth appearance in the Fall Classic in 30 years, matching the Cardinals and Braves for the most in the NL during that period of time. The Yankees, who led all clubs with eight World Series appearances in the same time frame, defeated the Phillies, four games to two.

Last season the Phillies used a franchise-record 102 victories to capture their fifth consecutive division title. For the second year in a row, Philadelphia led the majors in wins, something that had never previously been accomplished in club history. Fan support at Citizens Bank Park increased for the sixth straight season as for the first time in team history the Phillies led the majors with an attendance mark of 3,680,718, a new club record. All 81 home games were sold out for the second consecutive year bringing the Phillies' sellout streak at the ballpark to 204 games, dating back to 2009.

Homegrown talent was instrumental in the 1950 pennant-winners and the great 1976-83 era. That same formula has provided Phillies fans with the current run of excellence. Jimmy Rollins, Chase Utley, Ryan Howard, Carlos Ruiz and Cole Hamels are all products of the Phillies scouting and player development department.

One other talented homegrown character is the Phillie Phanatic, who debuted on April 25, 1978. As with the baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a Philadelphia tradition.

ALL-TIME ROSTER

Includes all players who have participated in one or more official National League games with the Phillies from 1883-2011... a total of 1,891 players. The most common names in Phillies history have been Miller (14), Johnson (11), Smith (11) and Jones (9).

Commissioner Bud Selig announced that all teams would retire No. 42 in 1997 during the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson's becoming the first African American to play in Major League Baseball... Robinson made his debut in 1947 with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who retired his number following his 1972 death... In 1987, the National League Rookie of the Year Award was renamed after Robinson... Former pitching coach Galen Cisco was the last Phillie to wear the number, in 1997. Mike Jackson, who wore No. 42, was signed as a free agent by the Phillies for the 2000 season but he did not pitch in a game that year.)

The Phils overcame a 3-1 deficit after 3.0 innings, broke a 4-4 tie in the 6th inning and a 5-5 tie in the 9th on a Ryan Howard sacrifice fly to take a 2-1 series lead.

Lee tied the Phillies postseason record with 10 strikeouts and threw his second complete game of the 2009 playoffs. Burnett (7.0 IP, 1 R). Matt Stairs' RBI single in the 2nd inning gave the Phils a 1-0 lead, but solo homers by Mark Teixeira and Hideki Matsui put New York ahead for good. The Phillies jumped out to an early 3-0 lead off New York starter Andy Pettitte but could not hold on. PHILLIES VS. CINCINNATI REDS
(Phillies win series, 3 games to 0)

Game 1 - October 6

In his postseason debut, Roy Halladay became the second pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in the playoffs in a 4-0 win over Cincinnati. Halladay narrowly missed throwing his second perfect game of the calendar year as he walked one batter, Jay Bruce, in the 5th inning. After taking a 1-0 lead in the 1st inning, the Phillies extended their lead in the 2nd on an RBI single by Halladay and a two-run base hit by Shane Victorino. The win was the Phillies' 7th consecutive victory in Game 1 of a postseason series, tying the National League record.

Philadelphia took a 2-0 series lead in a wild, 7-4 victory at Citizens Bank Park. The series appeared to be heading to Cincinnati tied at one game apiece when the Reds took a 4-0 lead into the bottom of the 5th inning. The Phillies offense, however, responded and cut Cincinnati's lead to one (4-3) after six. In the 7th, Philadelphia plated three unearned runs to take the lead and the game. Reds outfielder Jay Bruce lost a fly ball hit by Jimmy Rollins in the lights with runners on first and second which allowed both runners to score. Five of the seven runs scored by the Phils were unearned and both teams combined to commit six errors in the game, which set a League Division Series single-game record.

Chase Utley belted the club's first home run of the postseason off Cincinnati starter Johnny Cueto in the 5th to put the Phils ahead, 2-0. ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre-game ceremony at the World Series. Greg Luzinski received the award in 1978 and Garry Maddox in 1986. Other past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken Jr.

AWARDS

PAUL OWENS AWARD

Since 1986 the Phillies have honored the top player and pitcher in their minor league system. The award is named in honor of Paul Owens, who passed away in December 2003 after spending 48 years in the Phillies organization as a scout, farm director, general manager, manager and senior advisor.

BILL GILES AND LARRY ROJAS AWARDS

Bill Giles

Two awards were established in 1999 to honor minor league players who share the same attributes as the awards' namesakes: a love and respect for the game of baseball, an outstanding work ethic and pride in being a member of the Phillies organization.

Bill Giles climbed the baseball ladder from the minors to the majors, working in numerous executive capacities with the Astros and Phillies until getting a group together to purchase the Phillies in 1981. He was president and general partner until 1997 when he became chairman.

Larry Rojas was born in Cuba and played minor league baseball with the Phillies. He also served as a minor league coach and manager, spring training coordinator, scout and liaison for the Hispanic players in the system before his death in 2007.

To honor the accomplishments of Dallas Green, a longtime fixture in the Phillies organization, the club established the Dallas Green Scout of the Year Award in 2011. This annual award is presented to the amateur or professional scout who best exemplifies the Phillies' standard for scouting while demonstrating the same loyalty, work ethic, dedication and passion as the award's namesake. It also recognizes the scout's ability to judge not only a player's talent, but also his character and heart.

Over his distinguished career, which encompasses over 55 years in baseball including nearly 40 with the Phillies, Green has served in almost every capacity in the game, including player, scout, manager, general manager and club executive. He currently serves the club as a senior advisor to General Manager Ruben Amaro Jr.

WALL OF FAME

The tradition of honoring alumni of both the Phillies and the Philadelphia Athletics began in 1978 at Veterans Stadium in a 200 Level display originally called the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame. Former Phillies continue to be honored at Citizens Bank Park in the Wall of Fame display located in the Memory Lane section of Ashburn Alley. Toyota is the sponsor of Memory Lane and the Wall of Fame.

Phillies players with five or more years of service are eligible. In addition, position players require a minimum of 700 games, while pitchers need a minimum of 180 games to be eligible. Managers and coaches need four or more years of service.

All candidates must be retired for three years before they can be eligible for the 15-man ballot. Consideration is given to longevity, ability, character, and contributions to the Phillies and baseball, plus special achievements.

REMEMBERING THE A'S

From 1978 through the final year of the Vet, 2003, members of the A's were also selected yearly. The A's were a member of the American League in Philadelphia from 1901 through the 1954 season when the franchise was moved to Kansas City.

A total of 25 former A's were part of the Philadelphia Baseball Hall of Fame, starting with Connie Mack, their longtime manager/owner who was inducted posthumously in 1978.

A large statue of Connie Mack once stood at Connie Mack Stadium on the south side of Lehigh Avenue. During the 1971 inaugural season at Veterans Stadium, the Phillies relocated the statue to the corner of Broad Street and Pattison Avenue. The Phillies moved it again during the final construction stages of Citizens Bank Park in March of 2004.

Mack's statue is located on the west side of Citizens Bank Way. Names of the 25 A's players who were honored at the Vet's Hall of Fame display have been added to Mack's statue so that fans will forever remember the A's.

FORD C. FRICK AWARD

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster and National League President, has been presented annually since 1978. Each award recipient is presented with a certificate during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Long-time Phillies broadcaster By Saam received the award in 1990 and was joined in 2002 by his former broadcast partner, Harry Kalas.

J.G. TAYLOR SPINK AWARD

The Philadelphia media are also represented in the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. Former Philadelphia Inquirer baseball writer Allen Lewis (1981), Ray Kelly of the Philadelphia Bulletin (1988), Bus Saidt from The Trentonian and Trenton Times (1992) and Bill Conlin from the Philadelphia Daily News (2011) won the J.G. Taylor Spink Award. The award, named after the founder of The Sporting News, has been voted upon annually by the Baseball Writers' Association of America since 1962 and honors a baseball writer (or writers) "for meritorious contributions to baseball writing."

PLAYOFFS

The Lehigh Valley IronPigs made their first postseason appearance by clinching the 2011 International League wild card. In round one of the Divisional Series, the IronPigs swept the IL North Champion Pawtucket Red Sox in three games to reach the Governor's Cup Finals where the Pigs faced the IL West Champion Columbus Clippers. In Game 1 of the Governors' Cup Finals, the IronPigs extended their franchise-best win streak, which began on Sept. 2, to eight games. The win would be the last of 2011 for the IronPigs as they fell, three games to one, to Columbus, who repeated as champs.

The Reading Phillies qualified for the Eastern League playoffs for the first time since 2009 by clinching the 2011 EL wild card on the final day of the regular season, finishing with a record of 74-68. The R-Phils squared off against the New Hampshire Fisher Cats in the EL Eastern Division championship series. Despite outscoring the Fisher Cats, 14-9, for the series, the R-Phils lost to the eventual EL champions, three games to one. The R-Phils' lone victory came in Game 2, where an 11-run outburst was complemented by 6.0 innings of shutout work from RHP J.C. Ramirez. The 11-2 win snapped a four-game postseason losing streak dating back to 2009.

We are a true baseball family. Within the Minor Leagues, my daughter works in promotions, my husband was a groundskeeper and I am a merchandise manager. My husband experienced a life changing medical event that has left him with little hope to ever return to his job. The Baseball Assistance Team kept us from losing our home. I honestly don't know what I would have done without them!

He also hosted his own weekday afternoon-drive show on ESPN Radio 920 AM, which concentrated on local sports. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as a radio broadcaster with the New York Mets on WFAN before returning to the Phillies in November of 2007.

A graduate of The College of New Jersey (BA degree in communications), Tom spent six seasons with the Trenton Thunder, the former double-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox. He was hired as director of public and media relations in 1993 and promoted to assistant general manager in 1996, while also working as one of the team's broadcasters, doing play-by-play on radio and television for CN8.

After the 1999 season, Tom left the Thunder to pursue a full-time career in broadcasting, creating the first local-driven show on ESPN Radio 1680 AM. He also used to work national shows for ESPN Radio.

Tom has done extensive broadcasting for collegiate sports in his career. He currently does basketball and football play-by-play for CBS College Sports Network (formerly CSTV) and NFL games for Sports USA Radio. He worked as the radio voice of the Saint Joseph's University men's basketball team from 2004 through the 2009 season. Previously, he was the play-by-play voice for Rutgers University football (2001-03), as well as Princeton University football (1995-2000) and men's basketball (1995-2003).

In 2000, Tom earned a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award for his work on CN8 and is a two-time winner (2002 & 2004) of the Achievement in Radio Award for Best Local Sports Coverage. In January of 2007, he received the Radio/TV Excellence Award from the New Jersey Sportswriters Association. Last summer he was inducted into the Trenton Baseball Hall of Fame and had the radio booth at Waterfront Park in Trenton named after him.

Tom was born in Jersey City, N.J. He and his wife, Meg, live in Allentown, N.J., with their two sons, Patrick and Tommy, and two daughters, Maggie and Kerri.

LARRY ANDERSEN

The 2012 season is Larry Andersen's 15th season in the booth serving as a color analyst for the Phillies' radio broadcasts.

Larry began his broadcast career with the Phillies in 1998. He had been offered a position on the Houston Astros' broadcast team in 1997 when Larry Dierker moved from the booth to become manager, but opted instead to become pitching coach for the Phillies' triple-A affiliate at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. In 2008 he and his partner Scott Franzke won for Best Live Sports Event Coverage at the Philadelphia A.I.R. (Achievement in Radio) Awards, the second straight year they won that category.

A former relief pitcher who played 25 years of professional baseball, including 17 seasons in the major leagues with the Indians (1975-79), Mariners (1981-82), Phillies (1983-86; 93-94), Astros (1986-90), Red Sox (1990) and Padres (1991-92), Larry was 40-39 with 49 saves and a 3.15 ERA in 699 career games (1 start). In 1987, he pitched 101.2 innings, all in relief, and in 1989-90, he posted ERAs below 2.00 – 1.54 ERA in 1989 and 1.79 ERA in 1990.

Larry is famously known as being traded from the Astros to the Red Sox for Jeff Bagwell in August of 1990. He pitched in two World Series with the Phillies in 1983 and 1993 and in two League Championship Series, with Houston in 1986 and Boston in 1990. Larry holds the Phillies' club record for longest consecutive scoreless streak by a reliever (32.2 IP), set in 1984. It is also the third-longest among all Phillies pitchers, trailing Grover Alexander's 41.0 scoreless innings in 1911 and Cliff Lee's 34.0-inning streak last year.

After graduating from Interlake High School in Seattle, Wash., in 1971, he was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in the 7th round and made his major league debut with them in 1975. Following his playing career, Larry spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, first with double-A Reading (1995-96) and then Scranton (1997).

Born in Portland, Ore., Larry has two daughters, Angie and Tania, and one son, Chase. He is engaged to Kristi Marnie with a wedding date set for November 2012.

An eight-time Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award winner for sports play-by-play, Jim joined the Flyers organization in 1993 after serving as the radio voice of the Utica Devils (American Hockey League) for six seasons. In all, he has been involved in hockey play-by-play for over 20 years at various levels.

Jim has previous experience in baseball play-by-play. He was the radio voice of the Utica Blue Sox of the New York-Penn League from 1986-93 and spent the summer of 2005 broadcasting the Trenton Thunder in the Eastern League. In August of 2006, Jim was the television voice of the Cal Ripken World Series on the Outdoor Life Network. In addition, he has served as a part-time host on 610 WIP SportsRadio, authored a book, Walking Together Forever: The Broad Street Bullies, Then and Now, and provided the call for college football, basketball and lacrosse during his career. Last year, Jim won the Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year Award, given by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association.

Jim is a 1985 graduate of Syracuse University with a degree in broadcast journalism. He resides in Gloucester Township, N.J., with his wife Bernadette, daughter Deanna, and son Johnny.

PHILADELPHIA BROADCASTERS FOUNDATION

Formed in 2009, the Philadelphia Broadcasters Foundation began as a means of honoring the late Harry Kalas. His longtime colleagues and broadcast partners - Larry Andersen, Chris Wheeler, Gary Matthews, Scott Franzke, Tom McCarthy and Jim Jackson - formed the foundation in the hopes of awarding scholarships each year to aspiring broadcasters. Instead of just a simple scholarship program, the foundation was also formed with a vision of future charitable endeavors designed to impact the Philadelphia region. In the coming year, the members of the Phillies broadcast team will invite other broadcasters from Philadelphia to join the foundation and form a charitable plan for the future. PHILLIE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands

Named after the team's fanatical fans, the Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. From that humble beginning, the beloved mascot made it all the way to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y., where in 2002 it became part of a permanent exhibit. The Phanatic was also recognized by Forbes Magazine as the #1 sports mascot in both 2008 and 2011.

Often featured on sports highlight shows, the Phanatic moved into prime time with a recent appearance on the NBC hit television show 30 Rock. Last December he made a successful journey back to his homeland of the Galapagos Islands, where he explored the islands and interacted with the native wildlife.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 16 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made worldwide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997, 1998 and 2002) and Australia (1997 and 1999). Tom has written two Phillies books and 10 children's books and developed a reading program (Be A Phanatic About Reading) that encourages kids to read every day.

The 46-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in marketing. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Andrew, Daniel and Matthew.

PHILLIES TELEVISION NETWORK

The Phillies enter their 15th season in 2012 with the all-sports cable network Comcast SportsNet (CSN). CSN will carry 101 games, in addition to three spring training games, while The Comcast Network will broadcast eight regular season games and 11 spring contests. CSN will continue to enhance the fan experience with increased clarity of the action, as it produces all Phillies games in high definition from its state-of-the-art mobile production facility.

Phl17 is in its third stint as the home of the Phillies, having carried the club's games from 1971-82 and again from 1993-98. The station will broadcast three exhibition games and 45 games during the regular season, along with the 30-minute show W.B. Mason Behind the Pinstripes before every Sunday afternoon telecast. The show is hosted by Scott Palmer, Phillies Director of Public Affairs and a former sportscaster and news anchor.

Of the 162 Phillies games, 154 will be broadcast locally, with seven other games being picked up nationally by FOX. The Phils have also been selected for one game on ESPN's Sunday Night Baseball (May 6 at the Nationals), with the potential of four additional appearances during the season.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Phillies™
AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

The Phillies family – from the players, coaches and their wives to the alumni, ballgirls and front office staff – takes great pride in giving back to the community. The entire Phillies organization teams up annually to host a variety of special events and fundraisers, serve dinners to feed the homeless, and hold clothing drives and auctions. Additionally, the Phillies donate game tickets, autographed memorabilia and merchandise to support local charitable organizations and fundraisers.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the charitable arm of the Phillies organization, serving Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware and areas near the Phillies' minor league affiliates. Through a year-long campaign dozens of grants are awarded each year primarily to local charities serving a wide variety of needs.

Several events are held to raise money for the Phillies Charities Grant Fund. Due to strong fan support, events including the Phillies Phestival, Baseball 101 Clinic and Luncheon for Women, auctions and a 5K Run contribute largely to the fund. In 2011, over $1.23 million in grants were awarded to dozens of local, charitable organizations. The 2011 Phillies Phestival raised $893,000 to help fund patient services and research in the fight against ALS (also known as Lou Gehrig's disease). Since the relationship began in 1984 over $12 million has been donated to the Greater Philadelphia Chapter of the ALS Association.

Phillies Charities contributes to several other organizations including the Bethesda Project homeless shelter, Richie Ashburn-Harry Kalas Baseball Foundation, Philadelphia Futures, Police Athletic League and Clearwater for Youth.

The Phillies are proud of the contributions that individual players make each year through visits in the community, special visits with patients and their own foundations. In 2011 numerous players hosted charity events and combined raised more than $2 million for their respective charities benefitting the Philadelphia-area community. Additionally, several players developed charitable ticket programs which provided game tickets, concessions, and merchandise for community groups throughout the season.

- Roy Halladay's Doc's Box hosted a variety of children's groups and shelters from the Philadelphia area. The Halladay Family Foundation was launched in 2011 and is committed to hunger initiatives, animal rescue and children's charities.
- Cole Hamels held Philly Financial Day, a Diamonds and Denim dinner fundraiser and a pitching clinic to raise funds for The Hamels Foundation's support of local schools. The foundation donated $200,000 to Philadelphia schools in 2011. He also founded Hamels Heroes, a ticket program to benefit all branches of the military and their families.
- Ryan Howard held a Celebrity Servers fundraiser which benefitted disadvantaged youth through The Howard Family Foundation. Additionally, he announced a donation of $1.2 million in athletic apparel to the School District of Philadelphia and awarded $100,000 in scholarships and athletic program support for college students in Philadelphia and St. Louis.
- Cliff Lee introduced Lee's VIPs to bring deserving children and patients from local organizations to a game.
- Jimmy Rollins held his annual Celebrity BaseBOWL tournament and a new Havana Nights event to benefit the Arthritis Foundation of Eastern PA and Prevent Child Abuse Pennsylvania through the Rollins Family Foundation. His JRoll's Aces program brings children from disadvantaged areas excelling in the classroom to a game.

- Carlos Ruiz supported Philadelphia Futures' Get in the Game charity bowling tournament which raised $160,000 for the Sponsor-A-Scholar Program to help low-income students achieve their dream of a college education.
- Chase Utley's All-Star Animals Casino Night benefitted the Pennsylvania SPCA. The Utley Foundation launched in 2011 and partnered with the Philadelphia Mural Arts program. Chase's Champs provided season tickets to patients from The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and St. Christopher's Hospital.
- Shane Victorino committed $1 million through The Shane Victorino Foundation to renovate the Nicetown Boys and Girls Club which opened in September 2011 and now bears his name. His annual All-Star Celebrity Fashion Show helped raise funds for the renovation and a Celebrity Golf Tournament raised funds for children's charities in his home state of Hawaii. In addition, his Flyin' Hawaiian All-Stars program hosted underserved children during games.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

The players' wives also lend their time and efforts to support several charities. They meet with patients suffering with ALS and participate in the Phillies Phestival each year. Over the past several years, the Phillies Wives have raised over $182,000 for the Pennsylvania SPCA to provide shelter and bring awareness to animal cruelty. This includes a pet calendar and the annual Save a Pet at the Park event. Additionally, the Phillies Wives introduced From Our Home to Yours, A Collection of Phillies Recipes with proceeds benefiting homeless teenagers of Covenant House Pennsylvania and held several Pro-Pack Auctions. In 2011, the Phillies Wives Pro-Pack Auction raised $24,500 for Prevent Child Abuse Pennsylvania. Additional Wives fundraisers include Mystery Ball sales which benefit a different charity each year; recent beneficiaries included the People's Emergency Center, Women Against Abuse, The Food Trust, the Mary E. Walker House, the Linda Creed Breast Cancer Foundation and Camp No Worries.

Education and literacy are at the forefront of the Phillies' community efforts. During the summer of 2011 Phillies Phitness was introduced to encourage children in kindergarten through high school to take steps to a healthy future through exercise and smart food choices. Run through schools and summer camps, the program has over 100,000 area children getting fit with the Phillies. Since 2004 Be a Phanatic About Reading has been encouraging children in kindergarten through eighth grade to read for a minimum of 15 minutes a day to improve literacy and comprehension skills. During the 2011/12 school year over 100,000 students will read with the Phanatic. Through his program the Phanatic will visit nearly 30 schools excelling in reading. In addition to these visits, the Phanatic makes more than 400 donated community appearances annually. Phillies Phundamentals is an after-school/summer camp program that makes learning fun by using the theme of baseball to teach and reinforce academic skills. Started by the club in January 2001 and run in nearly 20 inner-city recreation centers, Phillies Phundamentals educates over 2,500 children aged 6-13 annually.

Also acting as ambassadors for the Phillies both on and off the field are the Phillies Ballgirls, comprised of educated, athletic and energetic women. In 2011 they made over 150 community appearances including visits to help further the Phillies' commitment to develop youth baseball and softball. The Jr. RBI and RBI Leagues provide underprivileged youth aged 5-18 in Greater Philadelphia the opportunity to play organized baseball and softball by teaching game rules as well as instilling the values of teamwork and sportsmanship. Combined, the programs, which provide uniforms and equipment, engage more than 8,000 boys and girls annually, making it one of the largest Jr. RBI/RBI League programs in the country.

Phillies fans are incredibly supportive of the work being done in the community and many charitable efforts are made possible by their generosity. Over the course of the 2011 season fans took part in many collections held at Citizens Bank Park to benefit local nonprofits. Fans donated new and gently used books to benefit local literacy organizations, helped collect hundreds of pieces of baseball equipment for Pitch In For Baseball, donated toys for the animals of the Pennsylvania SPCA and were a big part of putting smiles on the faces of countless children by donating toys that were distributed to A.I. duPont Hospital for Children, the Police Athletic League, Youth Services Inc. and Children's Crisis Treatment Center.

CITIZENS BANK PARK FACTS

Phillies RED GOES GREEN

The Phillies' award-winning "Red Goes Green" program at Citizens Bank Park is in partnership with ARAMARK and Global Spectrum.

- To offset the carbon footprint created by the team's utility power usage at the ballpark, the Phillies – for the fifth year in a row – have purchased 20 million kilowatt-hours of Renewable Energy Certificates (RECs) certified by Green-e Energy for the calendar year. An annual purchase of 100% renewable energy is equivalent to the planting of 100,000 trees. The Phillies are the first MLB team to launch such an initiative.
- The Phillies Red Goes Green Team – led by the Phillies Ballgirls and consisting of volunteers from local organizations – collects recyclable bottles throughout the ballpark during home games.
- Phil the Can is the "spokescan" for the Red Goes Green program. Phil is an interactive robot, presented by Waste Management, who speaks with fans and promotes awareness on ways to go green.
- There are 35 oversized, 80-gallon recyclable containers placed throughout the ballpark for fans to utilize and aid in recycling efforts.

SCOREBOARD SYSTEM: In 2011, the Phillies partnered with Sony Electronics' System Solutions Group and Daktronics to dramatically enhance the fans' viewing experience at Citizens Bank Park. The $10 million upgrade included the installation of a massive, new Daktronics HD-15 video display and the latest in Sony HD production technology. The new Phillies HD display, the largest in the National League and among the largest in the world, includes a dedicated closed captioning display to assist hearing impaired fans. All 800 televisions in the suites and public areas were upgraded to HD.

- The display could feature 49 life-size Phillie Phanatics standing next to and on top of each other
- Overall size: 76 feet high and 97 feet wide. Offers more than 2.5 times more video area than previous video display (7,372 square feet of digital space vs. 2,691 square feet)
- Weight: approximately 84,420 lbs. (42.2 tons)
- Resolution: The HD-15 display exceeds 1080p HD standard with 1512 lines of resolution (six times the resolution of the previous display)
- Super-wide viewing angles offer improved visibility for more fans
- Takes approximately 1,380 flat-panel televisions (at 42" each) to fill the area of the new display
- If it were a consumer television, the Phillies' display would be considered a 1,478" screen
- Uses state-of-the-art LED technology providing superior brightness in direct sunlight, with the capability to show up to 144 quadrillion shades of color
- Approximately 32,363 feet (6.1 miles) of wiring delivers power and data to the new display

SMOKING: By City of Philadelphia ordinance, smoking is only permitted in designated areas in the vicinity of the First Base Gate, Third Base Gate and Left Field Gate.

NIGHT GAME: Any game scheduled to start after 5 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5 p.m. and is delayed for any reason it will be considered a day game. If a game is scheduled to start at 5:01 p.m. it will be considered a night game. Twi-night doubleheaders shall be considered two night games.

PINCH-HITTERS: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and only on his first time at bat which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch-hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch-hitter during that second time up.

ROSTER LIMITS: 40 until Opening Day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again becomes 40 (maximum).

SUSPENDED GAME RULE: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game. A game terminated by curfew or by a prearranged time limit is a suspended game if it has progressed to be an official game (4 ½ or 5 innings). A game terminated by light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club is a suspended game anytime after it begins. Rule 4.11 (d)... A called game ends at the moment the umpire terminates play. EXCEPTION: If the game is called while an inning is in progress and before it is completed, the game becomes a suspended game in each of the following situations:

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the score and the home team has not scored.

–The visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or retaken the lead.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension immediately preceding the next scheduled, single game between the two clubs at the same site.

Any legal game called due to weather with the score tied is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

WAIVER AND DRAFT PRICES: The waiver price is $20,000 and the Major League Draft price is $50,000.

YEAR OF SERVICE: 172 days constitute a full major league year of service.

QUALIFYING MARKS

Batting Championship: Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances. However, if there is any player with fewer than the required number of plate appearances whose average would be the highest if he were charged with the required number of official at-bats, then that player shall be awarded the championship.

Pitching Championship: Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

Fielding Championship: Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;
(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
  (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
  (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or
  (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

Consecutive-Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive-Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

Waivers: Major league waivers must be secured for all major league trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes. No waivers are required to trade a major league player at any other time.

RAIN RULES

The right to postpone the playing of a game is vested in the home club with the exception of the final series between two clubs beginning on or after June 1, at which time the responsibility shifts to the Umpire-in-Chief. Once a game has started, the Umpire-in-Chief has sole authority to determine if a game should be suspended, when it can be resumed or if it should be terminated because of bad weather or unfit playing conditions. The Official Playing Rules provide that when a game has been temporarily suspended, umpires must wait at least 30 minutes before calling the game.

HOW TO FIGURE

Batting Average: Divide at-bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

Slugging Percentage: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

On-Base Percentage: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at-bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifices).

Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Media seeking to return to the Press Box during batting practice or any other time when the Phillies clubhouse is closed are required to use this entrance to return to the media elevator. The field and dugouts will be cleared of all non-uniformed personnel 45 minutes prior to game time. Phillies rules prohibit children (15 or under); MLB rules prohibit friends. We thank you for your cooperation.

Please note: Media are asked to avoid standing on the grass.
